

On February 12, 2017 a single gray whale was tagged with a satellite radio tag off of San José del Cabo, Baja California Sur, Mexico. It migrated north to the summer feeding grounds and arrived off of the Bering Strait in May and July 2017 where it was presumably feeding.

Satellite tagging of Gray whale at San José del Cabo, BCS, 2017

Poster by Esther Jimenez, UABCS/PRIMMA